Mary Flannery

O'Connor (March 25, 1925 – August 3, 1964)

was an American

novelist, short story writer and essayist. She wrote two novels and

thirty-two short stories, as well as a number of

reviews and

It has been 56 years
since Flannery O'Connor passed from the earth at the all-too-young age of 39. Her legacy as an outstanding writer and extraordinary human being seemed firmly established.

However, two

have led to her previously untarnished
legacy being questioned and the removal of her name from a residence hall at Loyola
