Trust no one - not even family.How much courage do you need to survive betrayal, war, and loss? Adara and her friends infiltrate Agro headquarters ready to free the Meeks. With only a handful of allies by their side, Adara soon learns that these mysterious adversaries are more powerful and cruel than she ever imagined. Despite overwhelming odds, she has to summon up all of her strength and power to destroy the Agro army.As filthy battles ensue and loved ones perish, Adara must sing The Song of Forgetfulness one last time if she is to save not only the Meeks, but all the folk of NotSoGreatBritAlbion, from a life of slavery and despair.But there is a traitor. Someone who is in league with the enemy. Someone close to home. Exciting, fun, unique, and creative. The author is truly a gifted writer to be able to whip up something like this. Easily a must-read for dystopian adventure lovers out there."It's a sickly wind that blows. Ash black and full of menace. Agros. Lots of themFeet pounding, shaking the earth, drawing closer.An unseen enemy equipped with tech we know nowt about.All I have is my voice and the power of friendship.I must act now before the Agro menace snuffs us out for good."A Silence Heard is a great addition to the dystopian/So-fi tradition of authors such as Patrick Ness, Ursula K Le Guin and Octavia E. Butler.
