I'm sure that my left leg is broke-. My hip hurts when I move my chin, My belly button's caving in, My back is wrenched, my ankle's sprained, My 'pendix pains each time it rains. My nose is cold, my toes are numb. I have a sliver in my thumb. My neck is stiff, my voice is weak, I hardly whisper when I speak.

Sick by Shel Silverstein - Poems | Academy of American Poets

Shel Silverstein is a great poet for children and adults. I grew up reading his poetry, and even now, as an adult, I continue to enjoy his writing. It is whimsical, funny, and many of his poems carry a deeper message (most of which went completely over my head as a kid).
