A wonderful tale from the talented team of Morpurgo and Foreman. It's a mix of fox, football, a royal ghost and a little Shakespeare for good measure. These foxes love football and the local team believes this fox family bring them good luck. But when they hear the voice of a king long gone, they help their favourite footy team even more!

Book Reviews for The Fox and the Ghost King By Michael

He's the best dustbin hunter in the world, my dad, and he's the top fox around, top dad too. He's not afraid of anyone, or anything, not ghosts, not kings, not even ghost kings - as you will see. But the most important thing you have to know about our family is that all of us are football crazy: Leicester City fans, Foxes fans.
