This might be a new series being launched from the Whirlwind Series. In this story we have a luxury Space Liner on its maiden voyage. A hyperspace trap is sprung by aliens and the story begins. The book is well written. The basic idea of the story is ageless. I don ' t think the story is up to the usual Nuttall standard.

Remove the necklace and change the iceberg for a hyperspace storm and we're talking about The Hyperspace Trap. Christopher Nuttall has a problem with his view of the reader - basically we are all a bit dim and can't follow the details of his plots. To this end we are repeatedly told key bits of information to ensure we understand.
